Cycle Seen

Picturing Portland's Bike Culture

Auction for Bikes to Rwanda

Saturday June 28, 4-6pm

What: A silent art auction for Bikes to Rwanda (BTR): featuring photography of Portland's bike culture. Cycle Seen and Stumptown Roasters will be hosting this event to benefit BTR. Join us for the silent auction, mingle with some of the artists, and have the chance to take home a piece of Portland's bike culture.

Where: Stumptown Coffee Roasters on Division
4525 SE Division St, Portland, Oregon

When: Saturday June 28, 4-6pm

Event: Free Admission

Cycle Seen is a city-wide project celebrating Portland's Bike Culture through pictures. Portland has an astonishingly diverse and unique community of cyclists. The Stumptown exhibition showcases a dynamic mix of photographs that represent cycling in PDX over the last two years. All the work sold will benefit Bikes to Rwanda, a non-profit organization that assists coffee farmers in Rwanda. Artists are donating between 50-100% of their proceeds to BTR.
